Dr. Bernie Power is a Lecturer at the Centre for the Study of Islam and Other Faiths. His area of expertise is in the comparative study of Islam and Christianity. He has several degrees in science and theology. Having graduated with a B.Sc, he taught in Australia and the UK. He has also completed Bachelor, Masters and Doctoral degrees in theology. In 1986 with his wife Catherine, a doctor, and young son, they set off as missionaries and over the next 20 years worked in Pakistan (where their second son was born), Jordan, Oman and Yemen. Bernie was involved in English teaching, theological training, and evangelism. Catherine worked as a doctor in clinics and doing health education in remote villages. For the past 8 years Bernie has taught at the Melbourne School of Theology in Islamic studies. He takes teams each year to different countries, including Sudan, Iraq and Libya. He preaches in many churches and speaks at international conferences throughout Africa, Asia and the Middle East. He has written various article such as "The Future of the Muslim Community in Australia" in John Azumah and Peter Riddell (Eds) Islam and Christianity on the Edge, 2013. His presentations include "Living with Islam", Doha, Qatar – November, 2013; "Surviving in the Middle East", Dubai, UAE – 2013 and The Gospel and Asian Culture, Manila, Philippines – 2013. His aim is to see people fall in love in Jesus and grow in their obedience to Him.
